1. Taste a famous Washington Boro Jetstar tomato!
2. Find the mosaic mural on the pavilion at East Donegal Riverfront Park.
3. Learn more about the region’s iron furnace history by visiting the historic Codorus Furnace in York County or the Musselman-Vesta Iron Furnace Center in Lancaster County.
4. Cross the newly-completed Safe Harbor Trestle or Martic Forge Trestle on the Enola Low Grade Trail!
5. Learn about the power of Wind Turbines at Turkey Hill Trail Overlook.
6. Watch the sunset on a rocking chair from the Riverview Deck at Columbia Crossing River Trails Center.
7. Uncover the hidden history of a ghost town at the White Cliffs of Conoy or under the waters of Lake Marburg in Codorus State Park.
8. Snap a photo of Norman Wood Bridge across the Susquehanna River, just south of the Holtwood Dam.
9. Take River Discovery Boat Tour with SNHA or capture a photo of the Chief Uncas on the Susquehanna River!
10. Drive through a covered bridge in Lancaster County.
11. Step back in time to learn about the Conestoga Wagon at the Conestoga Area Historical Society or visit the Landis Valley Museum.
12. Enjoy an educational program with Lancaster Conservancy at Climbers Run Nature Center.
13. Step off the Northwest Lancaster County River Trail to enjoy the view from the White Cliffs!
14. Find a light blue blaze on the Mason Dixon Trail, a National Trail that departs from the Appalachian Trail and stretches over 200 miles through Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Delaware.
15. Attend a show at Americas oldest operating theater, the Fulton Theater in historic downtown Lancaster, or the Appell Center for the Performing Arts, a hotspot in downtown York.
16. Travel through handcrafted ice sculptures on the Ice Trail at FestivICE in York County, or have a magical time at Lititz Fire and Ice festival.
17. All aboard! Explore the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania or take a train ride at Strasburg Railroad, Steam into History Northern Central Railway, or Ma & Pa Railroad Heritage Village.
18. Find a waterfall in York or Lancaster County! Try a hike at Tucquan Glen Nature Preserve or Apollo County Park, look for Manns Run Waterfall at Muddy Run Park, or Mill Creek Falls along the Mason Dixon Trail.
19. Birdwatch at the Conejohela Flats (an Audubon Important Bird Area on Lake Clarke) or on the York Audubon Society’s York County Birding Trail.
20. Take a tour about Native American history with Indian Steps Museum, Susquehanna NHA, Blue Rock Heritage Center, or the 1719 Museum.
21. Bring your camera to capture a phenomenal view of the Susquehanna River at one of ten scenic overlooks.
22. Find the gear you need to get your adventure started at one of our local outfitters.
23. Try the native Pawpaw fruit at the Horn Farm Center Pawpaw Festival in September.
24. Discover early science and medicine history at the Haldeman Mansion, Lancaster Medical Heritage Museum, or Historic Rock Ford.
25. Visit the farthest point east occupied by Confederate forces in the Civil War in Wrightsville during Riverfest, or visit the Burning of the Bridge Diorama.
27. Camp under the stars at a campground.
28. Explore the outdoors with the Susquehanna NHA Trails App, available on Android and Apple devices.
29. Follow the route Captain John Smith explored on the Captain John Smith Chesapeake National Historic Trail at PA’s Visitor Contact Station, the Zimmerman Center for Heritage. Take a house tour and become a Junior Ranger while your there!
30. Float or boat a section of the historic Conestoga River Water Trail or the Lower Susquehanna River Water Trail.
31. See a place where rails & trails collide at Point Rock Tunnel and Shock’s Mill Bridge on the NW Lancaster County River Trail, or Howard Tunnel on York Heritage Rail Trail.
32. Celebrate River Heritage Day with Blue Rock Heritage Center!
33. Explore the murals at Royal Square District, York City's most vibrant arts and shopping district, located at the intersecting blocks of King, Queen, Duke and Princess Streets.
34. Stroll through a variety of exhibits in the heart of Lancaster’s downtown art district, Gallery Row, on the 100 & 200 blocks of North Prince Street.
35. Visit Wheatland, home of 15th President James Buchanan, to take a tour with Lancaster History.
36. Have some old-fashioned family fun at the York Fair, Americas first fair, started in 1765!
37. Discover the region’s African American history at the Goodridge Freedom Center and Underground Railroad Museum, Christiana Underground Railroad Center at the Historic Zercher’s Hotel, or an African American Historical Society of South-Central Pennsylvania walking tour.
38. Spend the day doing hands-on exploration at the Agricultural and Industrial Museum, North Museum of Nature and Science, Lancaster Science Factory, or Hands-on House, Children’s Museum of Lancaster.
39. Enjoy the tastes of Lancaster County! Explore Pennsylvania Dutch style cuisine like scrapple, chicken pot pie, and red beet eggs, or enjoy unique handmade desserts like whoopie pies, shoefly pie, and apple butter.
40. Take a ride in an Amish horse and buggy, or spot one on the road in Lancaster County.
41. Try a delicious York Imperial Apple, developed by Jonathan Jessop in the 1820’s. Look for them at a local orchard or farmer’s market.
42. Time flies when you’re having fun! Lose track of time enjoying more than 12,000 horological items at the National Watch and Clock Museum.
43. Looking for interesting lodging? Stay at a shoe house or the freedom house with Airbnb.
44. Take a guided tour of the York Colonial Complex and explore the birthplace of the United States with York History Center. Make sure to selfie in front of the York Colonial Courthouse, where the Continental Congress met in York County, making York the nation’s first capital.
45. Have a picnic with family or friends at Samuel S. Lewis State Park, Susquehannock State Park, or the NEW Susquehanna Riverlands State Park.
46. Take a snack tour at Martin’s Potato Chip Factory, Snyder’s of Hanover Factory, or Utz Potato Chip Factory in York, the snack capital.
47. Celebrate winter with the Susquehanna Holiday Trail, Christmas Magic-A Festival of Lights in Rocky Ridge Park, Columbia Old Fashioned Christmas, or Marietta Candlelight Tour and carriage rides.
48. Visit Perrydell Farms, where you can get ice cream and meet the cows at the same time or learn about Lancaster County dairy farming and all things ice cream at the Turkey Hill Experience.
49. Go for a cruise over the Susquehanna River on America’s first transcontinental highway, the Lincoln Highway. Find the original, 1928 highway marker in downtown Columbia on Chestnut Street.
50. Be in two places at once! Straddle the Mason-Dixon Line! Stand with one foot in Maryland and one foot in Pennsylvania on the Mason Dixon Trail.
51. While on the Warwick to Ephrata Rail Trial, cross the steel bridge over the Cocalico Creek or spot the whimsical gnome garden in Akron.
52. Selfie standing in Penn Square where the Continental Congress met in the Lancaster County Courthouse, making Lancaster capital of the nation in 1777, even if just for one day.
53. This area has one of the best growing climates on the East coast and some of the most fertile soil in the nation. Enjoy some local wine at one of over a dozen vineyards.
54. Make a stop Lititz Springs Park Welcome Center situated in the Old Reading and Columbia Railroad Station.
55. Get stamped! Bring your passport to collect official NPS Cancellation Stamps from both Susquehanna National Heritage Area visitor centers, Columbia Crossing River Trails Center and Zimmerman Center for Heritage, for a total of 5 unique stamps.

Share your experience! Tag @SusqNHA in your photos! Submit at least 5 items from the list and receive a unique SNHA sticker. www.SusqNHA.org/