

Down the River on a Raft.

A large party of town people, consisting of Messrs. A. J. Kauffman, S. S. Detwiler, Dr. S. A. Bockius, John Fendrich, Dr. J. B. McBride and others, together with a large number of ladies, went down the river this morning on a raft. The party numbered about thirty and were in charge of Henry Seiple, the well-known pilot. The party were well supplied with refreshments and expect to have a very pleasant time. They will go through to Port Deposit and return home on the evening train.
