

SNHA HAUNTED HERITAGE BUCKET LIST

13 WAYS TO CELEBRATE SPOOKY SEASON
IN THE SUSQUEHANNA NATIONAL HERITAGE AREA

1. Explore our heritage area and immerse yourself in chilling tales with Columbia's Haunted Lantern Tour, delve into the depths with a Dungeon Tour at the Columbia Market House or embark on a Ghost Tour of Lancaster.
2. Get ready to embrace the Halloween spirit by attending a thrilling Halloween Parade! There are several great parades to choose from such as the York Halloween Parade, the Lancaster Halloween Parade, and Columbia's Mardi Gras Halloween Parade.
3. Choose from a haunted hayride, Carnival of Fear, Forsaken Forest, or Nocturnal Wasteland for a scary good time at Field of Screams or Jason's Woods!
4. 'Tis the season... for pumpkins! Pick a pumpkin from a local orchard, then put your skills to the test by painting or carving a pumpkin this spooky season.
5. Uncover the fascinating lives of those who preceded us with the York County History Center's Virtual Exhibit, "May they Rest in Peace: Cemeteries and Burial Grounds."
6. Choo choo! Embark on a journey filled with ghouls, ghosts, and fun and take a train ride during Haunted Rails & Tales at Strasburg Railroad or hop on one of the Halloween Trains with Northern Central Railway.
7. Experience the bountiful harvest season during Landis Valley Village & Farm Museum's biggest event, Harvest Days, or attend Fall Farm Days at The Amish Farm & House.
8. Step into the Halloween spirit by joining a themed event at a local museum or attraction! Choose from a range of activities like Trunk-or-Treat at the Hands-On House, Turkey Hill Experience's Halloween Scooptacular, Pumpkins and Pendulums at the National Watch and Clock Museum, and many others!
9. Reserve your spot for a chilling two-hour walking tour on October 18th! Attend "Harvest, Death & Renewal: Late October Traditions of the PA Germans," at the Landis Valley Village & Farm Museum and learn about funeral and burial customs, healing and hexes, and haunting tales of the past.
10. Sip on a seasonal drink at a river town coffee shop! Stop by The Wild Batch Bistro, Coffee and Cream, or HomeGoodies & Coffee.
11. Dive into a corn maze, enjoy a hayride, or pick your own apples or pumpkins at Cherry Crest Adventure Farm, Flinchbaugh's Orchard & Farm Market, Oregon Dairy, or Orchard Valley Farm.
12. Embrace the spirit of the season by participating in a cider-making event or another harvest-themed activity at a state park with PA DCNR, York County Parks & Rec, or Lancaster County Parks & Rec.
13. Discover the eerie tales of the Susquehanna National Heritage Area! Take a ride aboard Chief Uncas during the month of October and learn about our haunted heritage.
